Adrift (97mins) M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language

As avid sailors Tami (Shailene Woodley) and Richard (Sam Claflin) set out on a journey across the ocean, they couldn't anticipate they would be sailing directly into one of the most catastrophic hurricanes in recorded history. In the aftermath, Tami awakens to find Richard badly injured and their boat in ruins. She must find the strength to save herself and the man she loves.

C'est La Vie! (116mins) M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language

A hectic wedding party held in an 17th century French palace comes together with the help of the behind-the-scenes staff. From the directors of The Intouchables.

★★★★ "A likeable, witty and occasionally downright poignant and insightful little gem. Recommended." (Graeme Tuckett)

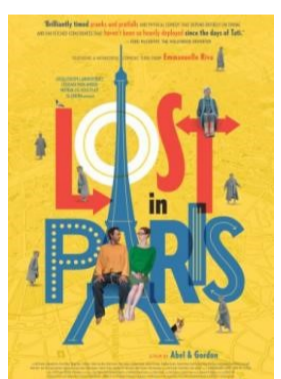

Edie (102mins) M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language

At the tender age of eighty-three, Edith Moore (Sheila Hancock) sets out to try and capture a little of the magic she had as a young girl by climbing a Scottish mountain. Against her daughter's wishes, she heads to Scotland and employs Jonny (Kevin Guthrie) to help her prepare for the gruelling climb ahead – which sparks an unusual friendship.

The Leisure Seeker (112mins) M Suicide and euthanasia themes, sex scenes, offensive language

John (Donald Sutherland) and Ella Spencer (Helen Mirren) have almost reached the end of the road. Instead of quietly fading away however, the Boston seventy-somethings flee the suffocating care of their doctors and children and hop aboard their vintage campervan, The Leisure Seeker, to visit the Florida Keys house of John's hero, Ernest Hemingway.

Lost in Paris (121mins) M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language, sexual references FINAL

When Fiona's (Fiona Gordon) orderly life is disrupted by a letter of distress from her Aunt Martha (Emmanuelle Riva) who is living in Paris, Fiona hops on the first plane she can and arrives only to discover that Martha has disappeared. In an avalanche of spectacular disasters, she encounters Dom (Dominique Abel), the affable, but annoying tramp who just won't leave her alone.

Mary Shelley (121mins) PG Parental Guidance recommended: Coarse language, sex scenes NEW

MARY SHELLEY tells the story of the author of one of the world's most famous Gothic novels, Frankenstein, and her relationship with romantic poet Percy Bysshe Shelley. In the midst of growing tension during their stay at Lord Byron's house at Lake Geneva, Mary (Elle Fanning) conceives of the idea of Frankenstein when a challenge is put to all houseguests to write a ghost story. An incredible character is created, which will loom large in popular culture for centuries to come.

Tea With The Dames (84mins) M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language, sexual references FINAL

TEA WITH THE DAMES is a unique celebration of the lives and careers of four of our most iconic actresses: Dame Eileen Atkins, Dame Judi Dench, Dame Joan Plowright and Dame Maggie Smith. The film invites you to spend time with these acting legends as they talk about their lives and their professional experiences across theatre, television and film.
