A Star Is Born (136mins)

M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Sex scenes, offensive language, drug use

In this new take on the tragic love story, seasoned musician Jackson Maine (Bradley Cooper) discovers—and falls in love with—struggling artist Ally (Lady Gaga). Ally has just about given up on her dream to make it big as a singer – until Jack coaxes her into the spotlight.

Bohemian Rhapsody (134mins)

M Offensive language, sexual references, drug references

BOHEMIAN RHAPSODY is a foot-stomping celebration of Queen, their music and their extraordinary lead singer Freddie Mercury (Rami Malek), who defied stereotypes and shattered convention to become one of the most beloved entertainers on the planet. The film traces the meteoric rise of the band and their near-implosion as Mercury's lifestyle spirals out of control.

Exhibition On Screen: Cezanne (87mins)

E Exempt from rating FINAL

One can't appreciate 20th century art without understanding the significance and genius of Paul Cézanne. Featuring interviews with curators and experts and correspondence from the artist himself, the film takes audiences beyond the exhibition to the places Cézanne lived and worked and sheds light on an artist who is perhaps the least-known of all the impressionists – until now.

First Man (141mins)

M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language FINAL

FIRST MAN is the riveting story of NASA's mission to land a man on the moon, focusing on Neil Armstrong and the years 1961-1969. A visceral first-person account, the movie explores the sacrifices and the cost — on Armstrong and on the nation — of one of the most dangerous missions in history. Starring Ryan Gosling and Claire Foy.

King Of Thieves (105mins)

M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language

KING OF THIEVES is based on the incredible true story of the spectacular 2015 London diamond heist, which was one of the biggest in British history. The film features an incredible 'Best of British' ensemble cast led by Academy Award winners Michael Caine and Jim Broadbent in a funny crime thriller.

They Shall Not Grow Old (99mins)

RP16 Graphic content may disturb 2 SHOWS ONLY

On the centenary of the end of WW1, Peter Jackson presents an extraordinary new work showing the Great War as you have never seen it. This unique film brings into high definition the human face of the First World War. Using state of the art technology to restore original archival footage, Jackson brings to life the people who can best tell this story: the men who were there.

Yellow Is Forbidden (95mins)

E Exempt from rating NEW

China's Guo Pei is chasing every designer's fantasy – to become part of the exclusive world of Haute Couture. Set within the new China, YELLOW IS FORBIDDEN is a feature documentary encompassing contemporary global power dynamics and the opposition between art and commerce, looking back at the history of couture all wrapped around the beauty of fashion.
