1917 (119mins)

R13

Restricted to Persons 13 & older: Depicts graphic & realistic war scenes

At the height of the First World War, two young British soldiers, Schofield (George MacKay) and Blake (Dean-Charles Chapman), are given a seemingly impossible mission. In a race against time, they must cross enemy territory and deliver a message that will stop a deadly attack on hundreds of soldiers — Blake's brother among them. Directed by Sam Mendes.

Bombshell (109 mins)

M

Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language, sexual references

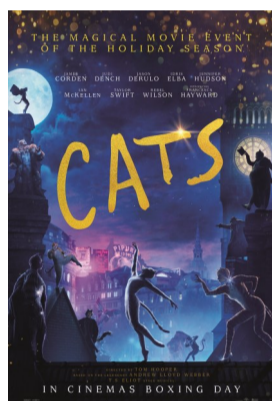

Starring Charlize Theron, Nicole Kidman, John Lithgow and Margot Robbie, BOMBHELL is based on a real scandal. It is a revealing look inside Fox News, the most powerful and controversial media empire of all time, and the explosive story of the women who brought down the infamous man who created it.

Cats (110 mins)

G

Suitable for General Audiences

FINAL

A tribe of cats called the Jellicles must decide yearly which one will ascend to the Heaviside Layer and come back to a new Jellicle life. Featuring Lloyd Webber's iconic music and a world-class cast including Judi Dench, Ian McKellen, Jennifer Hudson, Idris Elba, Taylor Swift and James Corden, the film reimagines the musical for a new generation with dance styles ranging from classical ballet to contemporary, hip-hop to jazz, street dance to tap.

The Good Liar (109 mins)

R13

Restricted: Sexual violence, violence, offensive language, nudity FINAL

Career con artist Roy Courtney (Ian McKellen) can hardly believe his luck when he meets well-to-do widow Betty McLeish (Helen Mirren) online. As Betty opens her home and life to him, Roy is surprised to find himself caring about her, turning what should be a cut-and-dry swindle into the most treacherous tightrope walk of his life.

Little Women (135 mins)

G

Suitable for General Audiences

Director Greta Gerwig's LITTLE WOMEN draws on both the classic novel and the writings of Louisa May Alcott, and unfolds as Jo March (Saoirse Ronan), reflects back and forth on her life. In Gerwig's take, the beloved story of the March sisters – four young women each determined to live life on her own terms — is both timeless and timely. Co-starring Emma Watson, Florence Pugh, Laura Dern and Meryl Streep.

The Peanut Butter Falcon (97 mins)

M

Suitable for Mature Audiences: Violence, offensive language NEW

Zak (Zack Gottsagen), a young man with Down syndrome, runs away from a nursing home to chase his dream of becoming a professional wrestler. Through circumstances beyond their control Tyler (Shia LaBeouf), a small time outlaw on the run, becomes Zak's unlikely coach and ally. Together they wind through deltas, elude capture, drink whisky, find God, catch fish, and convince Zak's carer Eleanor (Dakota Johnson) to join them on their journey.
