THE BOOKSELLERS dives into the fascinating world of rare book dealers and collectors in NYC. Dreamers, intellectuals, eccentrics, these antiquarians play an essential role in preserving the history and future of the printed word. A loving celebration of book culture, THE BOOKSELLERS is a special treat for anyone in love with books and reading.

The Burnt Orange Heresy (98 mins) R13 Restricted: Violence, offensive language, sex scenes FINAL

Art critic James (Claes Bang) has fallen from grace. His only glimmer of hope is the enigmatic American Berenice (Elizabeth Debicki). An opportunity strikes when James is contacted by wealthy art dealer Joseph Cassidy (Mick Jagger) who asks James to steal a painting from legendary reclusive artist Jerome Debnay (Donald Sutherland).

Cinema Italiano Festival

Military Wives (113 mins)

M

Offensive language, sexual references NEW

A group of women come together as their partners serve in Afghanistan. Kate (Kristin Scott Thomas) persuades the ragtag group on the base to form the Military Wives Choir. Finding their voice together, the choir put two fingers up to stuffy military tradition, anti-war protesters and their own personal differences.

The Personal History Of David Copperfield (120 mins) PG Parental Guidance Recommended: Violence

From birth to infancy, from adolescence to adulthood, the good-hearted David Copperfield (Dev Patel) is surrounded by kindness, wickedness, poverty and wealth, as he meets an array of remarkable characters in Victorian England. As David sets out to be a writer, the story of his life is the most seductive tale of all. Directed by Armando Iannucci.

Radioactive (110 mins)

M

Sex scenes, offensive language, content that may disturb

RADIOACTIVE is a journey through Marie Curie's (Rosamund Pike) enduring legacies. After meeting fellow scientist Pierre Curie (Sam Riley), the pair go on to marry and change the face of science by discovering radioactivity. The genius of the Curies' discoveries and the ensuing Nobel Prize propels the devoted couple into the international limelight.

Rosie (86 mins)

PG

Parental Guidance Recommended: Coarse language FINAL

With ROSIE, award-winning Irish novelist Roddy Doyle brings his signature brand of warmth and authenticity to a modern story of a Dublin family who have found themselves with nowhere left to go. Young mother Rosie (Sarah Greene) searches to find a room for the night for her family – a tense race against time as the hours count down and their options run out.
