23 Walks (102 mins)

M

Suitable for Mature Audiences: Sex scenes, offensive language

Dave (Dave Johns) and Fern (Alison Steadman) have been bruised by their individual circumstances. They meet walking their dogs in a North London park, and over the course of twenty-three walks together, romance begins to blossom.

Art On Screen: The Prado Museum (90 mins) partly subtitled E Exempt from rating FINAL

A cinematic journey through the rooms and stories of one of the most visited museums in the world. The Prado's wealth is a spell-binding experience drawing almost 3 million visitors to Madrid every year and includes the works of Vélazquez, Rubens, Titian, Bosch and Goya.

Fatima (113 mins)

M

Suitable for Mature Audiences:: Violence

In 1917, outside of Fátima, Portugal, three children witness visitations of the Virgin Mary, who tells them that only prayer and suffering will bring an end to WWI. Word spreads across the country, inspiring pilgrims to flock to the site in hopes of witnessing a miracle.

Military Wives (113 mins) M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language, sexual references FINAL

A group of women come together as their partners serve in Afghanistan. Kate (Kristin Scott Thomas) persuades the ragtag group on the base to form the Military Wives Choir. Finding their voice together, the choir put two fingers up to stuffy military tradition.

Savage (100 mins)

R16

Restricted: Violence, cruelty, offensive language, sexual references

SAVAGE follows Danny (Jake Ryan) at three defining moments in his life as he grows from a boy into the violent enforcer of a gang: From abusive institutions of the 60s; to the emerging urban gang scene in the 70s; to the 80s when gangs became more violent.

School Life (111 mins) subtitled M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language, sexual references NEW

Samia (Zita Hanrot) is the new vice principal at an inner-city school in Paris. Despite the school's poor academic record and the majority of its enrolment coming from an infamous social housing tower block, Samia sees potential in all of them.

This Town (91 mins)

M

Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language, sexual references

Five years ago, Sean's (David White) family was murdered. Acquitted of the crime, he meets Casey, a young woman who believes in his innocence. Pam (Robyn Malcolm) was the officer in charge of the investigation. Tormented by the murders, she is unable to move on.

Two Of Us (95 mins) subtitled M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language NEW

Nina (Barbara Sukowa) and Madeleine (Martine Chevallier) have been secretly in love for decades. From everybody's point of view, they are simply neighbours—until their relationship is turned upside down and Madeleine's daughter slowly unveils the truth.
