Art On Screen: Tintoretto (96 mins) Partly subtitled E Exempt from rating NEW

TINTORETTO – A REBEL IN VENICE tells the story of painter Jacopo Robusti, known as Tintoretto, from the early years of his artistic career until his death in 1594 in the city that inspired and challenged him. A one of a kind genius, he reflected the true spirit of the lagoon city.

Hope Gap (100 mins) M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language, suicide references

Grace (Annette Bening) and Edward (Bill Nighy), married for 29 years, live in a small seaside town. When their son Jamie (Josh O’Connor) comes to visit for the weekend, Edward informs him that he plans to leave Grace that same day.

I Am Greta (101 mins) E Exempt from rating NEW

The story of teenage climate activist Greta Thunberg is told through compelling, never-before-seen footage. Starting with her one-person school strike for climate action outside the Swedish Parliament, we follow Greta in her rise to prominence.

It Must Be Heaven (102 mins) Subtitled PG Parental Guidance recommended: Offensive language

Elia Suleiman escapes from Palestine seeking a new homeland, only to find that Palestine is trailing behind him. The promise of a new life turns into a comedy of errors: However far he travels, from Paris to New York, something always reminds him of home.

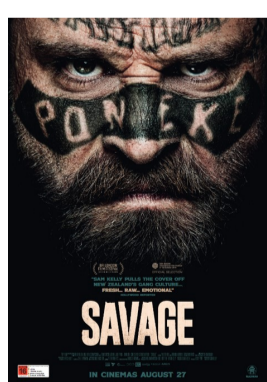

The Mystery Of Henri Pick (101 mins) M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language NEW

An editor discovers a novel she deems a masterpiece in a library collecting manuscripts refused by the publishers. The text is signed Henri Pick, a Breton pizza maker who died two years earlier. With its twists and turns, this film is a puzzle that captivates and excites.

Romantic Road (81 mins) PG Parental Guidance recommended: Coarse language, drug references

Rupert and Jan Grey are a free-spirited upper-class English couple in their sixties. Not content to retire, they ignore everyone’s advice and embark on a remarkable journey – to drive their 1936 Rolls Royce across India on their way to Dhaka, Bangladesh.

Savage (100 mins) R16 Restricted: Violence, cruelty, offensive language, sexual references FINAL

SAVAGE follows Danny (Jake Ryan) at three defining moments in his life as he grows from a boy into the violent enforcer of a gang: From abusive institutions of the 60s; to the emerging urban gang scene in the 70s; to the 80s when gangs became more violent.

The More You Ignore Me (99 mins) M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Sex scenes, offensive language

Based on the novel by Jo Brand, this is a darkly funny story of dysfunctional family life in 1980’s England. Gina’s efforts to be a loving mother and wife are undermined by her declining mental health, while her daughter Alice struggles to relate to her mum.
