A Call To Spy (124 mins)

M

Suitable for Mature Audiences: Violence

At the beginning of WWII, Churchill orders his new spy agency to recruit and train women as spies. Their mission: conduct sabotage and build a resistance. The “spymistress”, Vera Atkins, recruits two unusual candidates: Virginia Hall, an ambitious American with a wooden leg, and Noor Inayat Khan, a Muslim pacifist.

Blithe Spirit (99 mins)

PG

Parental Guidance: recommended: Violence, coarse language, sexual references, drug use

Novelist Charles Condomine (Dan Stevens) invites the eccentric medium Madame Arcati (Judi Dench) to conduct a séance, hoping to gather material for his next book. The scheme backfires when he is haunted by the ghost of his annoying first wife, Elvira (Lesley Mann).

The Dry (117 mins)

M

Suitable for Mature Audiences: Violence, offensive language, content that may disturb

Federal Agent Aaron Falk (Eric Bana) returns to his home town in Australia to attend the funeral of his childhood friend who allegedly killed his wife and child before taking his own life. When Falk agrees to investigate the crime, he opens up an old wound – the death of 17- year-old Ellie Deacon.

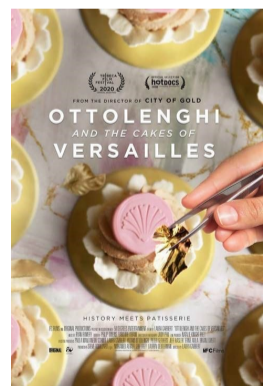

Made In Italy (94 mins)

M

Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language FINAL

Set in Tuscany, the comedy stars Liam Neeson as Robert, an artist who returns to Italy with his estranged son Jack (Micheál Richardson) to sell house they inherited from his late wife. As Robert and Jack painstakingly restore the villa to its previous glory, they begin to repair their bond and imagine a different future.

Ottolenghi & The Cakes Of Versailles (76 mins)
