A Boy Called Christmas (104 mins) PG Parental Guidance: May scare very young children NEW

A young boy called Nikolas sets out on an adventure into the snowy north in search of his father who is on a quest to discover the fabled village of the elves, Elfhelm. Accompanied by a headstrong reindeer and a loyal pet mouse, Nikolas meets his destiny in this magical origin story of Father Christmas. Starring Maggie Smith and Jim Broadbent.

Falling For Figaro (105 mins) M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language

FALLING FOR FIGARO (M) is set in the world of opera singing competitions. In the Scottish village of Drumbuchan, fearsome singing teacher Meghan (Joanna Lumley) prepares her two students, Max (Hugh Skinner) and Millie (Danielle Macdonald), for the same competition - manipulating their love lives to get the best performance out of them.

Juniper (94 mins) M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Violence, offensive language, drug use, deals with suicide

On returning home from boarding school, a self-destructive teenager discovers his gin-soaked grandmother (Charlotte Rampling) has moved in. A battle of wills ensues which enables him to embrace life again, and her to face her own mortality.

No Time To Die (163 mins) M Suitable for Mature Audiences: Violence, offensive language

In NO TIME TO DIE, James Bond (Daniel Craig) has left active service and is enjoying a tranquil life in Jamaica. His peace is short-lived when his old friend Felix Leiter from the CIA turns up asking for help. The mission to rescue a kidnapped scientist turns out to be far more treacherous than expected.

The Power Of The Dog (128 mins) R13 Restricted: Animal cruelty, content that may disturb Brothers Phil (Benedict Cumberbatch) and George (Jesse Plemons) are wealthy ranchers in Montana. When they meet Rose (Kirsten Dunst) and her son Peter (Kodi Smit-McPhee), Phil behaves cruelly - but George comforts Rose then returns to marry her. As Phil swings between fury and cunning, the plot twists further into menace. Directed by Jane Campion.

The Rescue (107 mins) E Exempt from rating

THE RESCUE chronicles an against-all-odds story that transfixed the world: the daring rescue of twelve boys and their coach from inside a flooded cave in Thailand. The documentary shines a light on the high-risk world of cave diving and the astounding courage and compassion of the rescuers.
