Belfast (98 mins)M

Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language

FINAL

Kenneth Branagh's BELFAST is a story of love, laughter and loss in one boy's childhood, amid the social tumult of the late 1960s. Jamie Dornan and Caitriona Balfe play a working-class couple caught up in the mayhem. Co-stars Judi Dench and Ciaran Hinds.

Downton Abbey: A New Era (125 mins)PG

Parental Guidance: Coarse language

The much-anticipated cinematic return of the global phenomenon reunites the beloved cast as they go on a grand journey to the South of France to uncover the mystery of the Dowager Countess' (Maggie Smith) newly inherited villa.

The Duke (96 mins)M

Suitable for Mature Audiences: Sex scenes, offensive language

In 1961, 60-year-old taxi driver Kempton Bunton (Jim Broadbent) stole Goya's portrait of the Duke of Wellington from the National Gallery. He sent ransom notes asking the government to invest more in care for the elderly. What happened next became the stuff of legend. Co-stars Helen Mirren, directed by Roger Michell.

Elizabeth: A Portrait In Parts (90 mins)E

Exempt from rating

FINAL

From director Roger Michell comes a new documentary celebrating the life and reign of Queen Elizabeth II. With unprecedented access to never-before-seen footage, ELIZABETH is a cinematic mystery-tour up and down the decades: Funny, disobedient, affectionate, mischievous, in awe. The Queen as you've never seen her before.

The Last Bus (86 mins)M

Suitable for Mature Audiences: Sexual references

FINAL

Using his free bus pass, widower Tom (Timothy Spall) travels from Britain's most Northerly point to his original home town at its most Southerly point, Land's End. Carrying with him his wife's ashes, he travels the length of the country to take her back home. Along the way, his adventures are recorded by the people he meets.

Operation Mincemeat (127mins)M

Suitable for Mature Audiences: Offensive language

NEW

Set in 1943, OPERATION MINCEMEAT follows two intelligence officers (Colin Firth and Matthew Macfadyen) who conceive a brilliant plan to trick the Nazis into thinking that Allied forces are planning to attack by way of Greece rather than Sicily. Their plan involves a corpse with fake papers, and plenty of luck.
