Journey To Bethlehem (99 mins) PG Parental Guidance: Violence

This Christmas musical celebration for the entire family weaves classic Christmas melodies into new pop songs in a music-infused retelling of the timeless story of Mary and Joseph and the birth of Jesus. Stars Antonio Banderas.

Loop Track (96 mins) R16 Restricted: Violence, offensive language, horror FINAL

A man on the verge of a nervous breakdown retreats to the New Zealand bush, only to encounter other trampers—and someone or something else entirely—in this psychological thriller, a big screen first for comedian Tom Sainsbury.

Napoleon (158 mins) R13 Restricted: Violence, offensive language , sex scenes

Directed by Ridley Scott, this is a spectacle-filled action epic that details the checkered rise and fall of Napoleon Bonaparte (Joaquin Phoenix), capturing his relentless journey to power and visionary military and political tactics.

Next Goal Wins (104 mins) PG Parental Guidance: Coarse language NEW

Directed by Taika Waititi, this comedy follows the American Samoa soccer team, infamous for being the world’s worst soccer team. With the World Cup Qualifiers approaching, the team hires maverick coach Thomas Rongen (Michael Fassbender), hoping to turn their luck around. Co-stars Elisabeth Moss and Oscar Kightley.

Saltburn (132 mins) R16 Restricted: Drug use, suicide, sex scenes, offensive language FINAL

Struggling to find his place at Oxford, student Oliver (Barry Keoghan) finds himself drawn to charming and aristocratic Felix (Jacob Elordi), who invites him to Saltburn, his eccentric family’s sprawling estate, for a summer never to be forgotten.

Uproar (110 mins) M Mature Audiences: Violence, offensive language FINAL

Dunedin 1981. A rugby-obsessed nation is divided over the arrival of the South African Springboks team. 17-year-old misfit Josh (Julian Dennison) is inspired by the protests to find his own voice, taking him on a journey towards healing.
