The Boys In The Boat (124 mins)

M

Mature Audiences: Offensive language

NEW

Based on the true story about the 1936 University of Washington rowing team that competed for gold at the 1936 Berlin Olympic games, this follows a group of underdogs at the height of the Great Depression as they're thrust into the spotlight and take on elite international rivals. Directed by George Clooney.

Ferrari (130 mins)

R16

Restricted: Graphic injury detail, offensive language , sex scenes

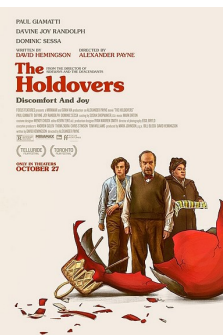

It's 1957, and ex-racecar driver Enzo Ferrari (Adam Driver) is in crisis. Bankruptcy stalks the company he and his wife, Laura (Penelope Cruz), built from nothing, while their marriage struggles with the loss of their son. Ferrari decides to counter his losses by rolling the dice on one race – 1,000 miles across Italy, the iconic Mille Miglia.

The Holdovers (133 mins)

M

Mature Audiences: Offensive language

NEW

THE HOLDOVERS follows a curmudgeonly teacher (Paul Giamatti) at an American school who is forced to remain on campus during Christmas break to babysit the handful of students with nowhere to go. Eventually he forms an unlikely bond with a brainy troublemaker and with the school's head cook (Da'Vine Joy Randolph).

Next Goal Wins (104 mins)

PG

Parental Guidance: Coarse language

FINAL

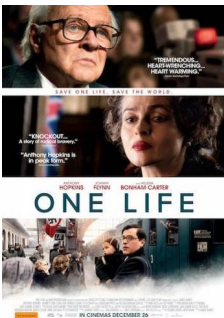

Directed by Taika Waititi, this comedy follows the American Samoa soccer team, infamous for being the world's worst soccer team. With the World Cup Qualifiers approaching, the team hires maverick coach Thomas Rongen (Michael Fassbender), hoping to turn their luck around. Co-stars Elisabeth Moss and Oscar Kightley.

One Life (132 mins)

Parental Guidance recommended

The true story of Nicholas "Nicky" Winton, a young London broker who rescued 669 children from the Nazis. Fifty years later, Nicky (Anthony Hopkins) lives haunted by the fate of the children he wasn't able to save - until a live BBC television show surprises him by introducing him to some of the surviving children, now adults.

Wonka (117 mins)

Parental Guidance recommended

Based on the character at the center of Roald Dahl's iconic Charlie And The Chocolate Factory, WONKA tells the story of how the world's greatest inventor, magician and chocolate-maker became the beloved Willy Wonka we know today.

Stars Timothée Chalamet, Hugh Grant, Sally Hawkins and Olivia Colman.
