Cabrini (145 mins)

M Mature Audiences: Violence

NEW

The powerful epic of Francesca Cabrini (Cristiana Dell'Anna), an Italian immigrant who arrives in New York City in 1889 and is greeted by disease, crime, and impoverished children. With broken English and poor health, Cabrini uses her entrepreneurial mind to build an empire of hope.

The Convert (119 mins)

R13 Restricted: Bloody violence, cruelty

Seeking redemption from a dark past, British lay preacher Thomas Munro (Guy Pearce) travels to New Zealand, where he gets caught up in a battle between Māori tribes. After one of chief Maianui's men is murdered, Munro and Maianui's daughter Rangimai make the difficult journey into prohibited lands ruled by Māori warlords.

The Great Escaper (96 mins)

M Mature Audiences: Offensive language, sexual references

In the summer of 2014 Bernard Jordan (Michael Caine) made global headlines by staging a "great escape" from his care home to join fellow war veterans on a beach in Normandy, commemorating their fallen comrades. This is his story.

The Mountain (89mins)

PG Parental Guidance recommended

Sam, a fearless girl raised outside of her Maori Culture, is determined to fulfil her mission of connecting with her mountain and being healed from the cancer she battles. Meeting new friends along the way, she learns the true spirit of adventure.

The Trust Fall: Julian Assange (135 mins)

E Exempt from rating FINAL

Australian journalist and publisher Julian Assange has become one of the loudest voices for free speech of our times. The disclosures of WikiLeaks from 2010 ignited a firestorm of controversy. This documentary examines the resulting political scandal.

Wicked Little Letters (100 mins)

M Mature Audiences: Offensive language, nudity

A 1920s English seaside town bears witness to a scandal in this riotous mystery comedy. When deeply conservative Edith (Olivia Colman) begins to receive wicked letters full of hilarious profanities, foul-mouthed Rose (Jessie Buckley) is charged with the crime. A group of women set out to solve the mystery.

The Zone Of Interest (105 mins)

M Mature Audiences: Sexual references, content may disturb

The commandant of Auschwitz, Rudolf Höss (Christian Friedel), and his wife Hedwig (Sandra Hüller), strive to build a dream life for their family in a house and garden next to the camp. Academy Award winner for Best International Film.
