Downton Abbey—The Grand Finale (122 mins) PG Coarse language, sexual references

The return of the global phenomenon follows the Crawley family and their staff as they enter the 1930s and navigate how to lead Downton Abbey into the future.

Eleanor The Great (98 mins) PG Parental Guidance: Violence, coarse language

When 94-year-old Eleanor (June Squibb) moves to New York, she feels adrift and invisible. Unknowingly, she wanders into a support group and reveals a story that brings her a level of attention she did not intend. Directed By Scarlett Johansson.

Exhibition On Screen: Caravaggio (101 mins) E Exempt from rating

Master of light. Notorious brawler. Convicted murderer. Five years in production, this is the most extensive documentary ever made about one of the greatest artists of all time – Italian painter Caravaggio.

Pike River (131 mins) M Mature Audience: Offensive language

Melanie Lynskey and Robyn Malcolm star as two ordinary women who lose their loved ones in the 2010 Pike River Mine explosion, and become leading voices in the families’ fight for truth and accountability. Co-stars Lucy Lawless.

Prime Minister (102 mins) M Mature Audience: Offensive language

Going behind the scenes of Jacinda Ardern's administration and private life, this documentary follows her for seven years as she is catapulted to the top of New Zealand politics, becomes a feminist political icon, and resigns suddenly.

Roofman (125 mins) M Mature Audience: Sex scenes, offensive language, nudity

This comedy follows the true story of Jeffrey Manchester (Channing Tatum), a struggling father who turns to robbing McDonald’s restaurants. When he falls for single mum Leigh (Kirsten Dunst), his double life begins to unravel.

Springsteen: Deliver Me From Nowhere (119 mins) M Mature Audience: Offensive language, sex scenes, mental health themes

Jeremy Allen White portrays Bruce Springsteen as a young musician on the cusp of global superstardom, struggling to reconcile the pressures of success with the ghosts

Wicked: For Good (148 mins) “FRIENDS FOR GOOD” ADVANCE SCREENING

This comedy follows the true story of Jeffrey Manchester (Channing Tatum), a struggling father who turns to robbing McDonald’s restaurants. When he falls for single mum Leigh (Kirsten Dunst), his double life begins to unravel.
