	Anchor Me (90 mins)	E Exempt from rating Whether through his legendary act The Front Lawn, or compositions for film and television, the songs of Don McGlashan are well known to the Kiwi ear. This captivating documentary celebrates the extraordinary journey of Don’s career, packed with backstage stories, personal moments, and the magic behind chart-topping hits.
	Hamnet (126 mins)	M Mature Audience: Offensive language HAMNET tells the powerful love story that inspired the creation of Shakespeare’s timeless masterpiece, Hamlet. Based on the 2020 novel by Maggie O’Farrell, this “tremendously acted heartbreaker” (Hollywood Reporter) stars Paul Mescal as William Shakespeare and Jessie Buckley as his wife. Directed by Chloe Zhao.
	Marty Supreme (150 mins)	R13 NEW Restricted: Violence, sex scenes, offensive language , nudity, wound detail Marty Mauser (Timothée Chalamet), a young man with a dream no one respects, goes to hell and back in pursuit of greatness. Directed by Josh Safdie, co-stars Gwyneth Paltrow.
	Not Only Fred Dagg (107 mins)	M Mature Audience: Offensive language When satirist John Clarke died in 2017, the world mourned an icon. In a remarkable series of recorded conversations, John and his daughter (writer/director Lorin Clarke) offer delightful insights into his four decades in the entertainment industry.
	Nuremberg (148 mins)	M Mature Audience: Holocaust imagery, suicide Germany at the end of WWII. While the Allies aim to ensure the Nazi regime answers for the horrors of the Holocaust, a US Army psychiatrist (Rami Malek) is locked in a psychological duel with former Reichsmarschall Herman Göring (Russell Crowe).
	Song Sung Blue (132 mins)	M Mature Audience: Offensive language, mental health themes Based on a true story, two down-on-their-luck musicians (Hugh Jackman and Kate Hudson) form a joyous Neil Diamond tribute band, proving it’s never too late to find love and follow your dreams.
	What Lies Between (85 mins)	M Mature Audience: Offensive language, self harm FINAL Filmed in Hawke’s Bay, this psychological thriller focusses on writer Jim (Daniel Betty) who rents a cottage on remote farmland to write his book. As he explores the surrounding forest it becomes evident that he is not alone.
