Fackham Hall (97 mins) M Mature Audience: Violence, sexual references, offensive language FINAL

Mistaken identities, forbidden love, and one very inconvenient corpse turn the grand English manor of Fackham Hall into total bedlam in this comedy of class, romance, manners, and mischief. Stars Damien Lewis, Thomasin Mackenzie.

I Swear (121 mins) RP13 Restricted: Violence, suicide themes, sexual references, offensive language

I SWEAR follows the true story of Tourette Syndrome campaigner John Davidson's journey with Tourette's. In 1980s Britain, John is alienated from his peers and family until he finds some unlikely champions.

Holy Days (101 mins) PG Parental Guidance: Drug use, coarse language

Set in New Zealand in the 1970s, HOLY DAYS is a hilarious, heartwarming dramedy. When young Brian discovers plans to close a convent of delightfully eccentric nuns, he sets off on a wild road trip across the country to save them.

The Magic Faraway Tree (110 mins) G Suitable for General Audiences

When Polly (Claire Foy), Tim (Andrew Garfield) and their three children relocate to the remote English countryside, the children discover a magical tree and its extraordinary and eccentric residents. Based on the novels by Enid Blyton.

Michael (127 mins) M Suitable for Mature Audiences NEW

Directed by Antoine Fuqua (Training Day) and starring Jaafar Jackson, MICHAEL is the cinematic portrayal of the life and legacy of one of the most influential artists the world has ever known, giving audiences a front-row seat to Michael Jackson.

Midwinter Break (91 mins) M Mature Audience: Offensive language FINAL

MIDWINTER BREAK is a compelling story about lost faith, commitment, and the enduring power of love, as a longtime couple (played by Lesley Manville and Ciaran Hinds) takes a life-changing trip to Amsterdam.

Tenor: My Name Is Pati (104 mins) PG Parental Guidance: Coarse language

This music-packed documentary tells the story of Pene Pati and his brother Amitai, and their against-the-odds journey from Samoa to platinum-selling success in the trio Sol3 Mio and on to the world's greatest opera stages.
